INTRODUCTION TO THE BOOK

Your book is called Frequency: The Power of Personal Vibration. Can you explain what you mean by “frequency” and “personal vibration”?

You use the term “frequency principles” and Jean Houston, in her review of your book, uses the phrase “the new art and science of frequency dynamics.” How would you define this?

What are some of the main premises of Frequency?

How did you come to write this book? Do you think there’s a reason the material you’re writing about is showing up at this particular time—when we’re in the midst of a global crisis?

HOW THE TRANSFORMATION PROCESS FIGURES IN

In your book you outline 9 stages in a Process of Evolution that you say everyone is going through right now. Can you describe this process? How does it affect us?

- Is society experiencing the same thing as the individual?
- How does working with personal vibration help with the evolution process?

What are some of the signs that show our personal frequency is increasing right now? Doesn’t it seem like just the opposite—that more negativity is surfacing everywhere?

If we’re transforming, what are we transforming into? In your book you call this the shift from the Information Age to the Intuition Age—what will the Intuition Age be like?

WE’RE BECOMING ULTRASENSITIVE AND EMPATHIC

You say life is accelerating and because of that, our bodies are becoming ultrasensitive. Can you talk about this?

- Is there an advantage to being ultrasensitive, or more empathic? Doesn’t it make us feel even more overwhelmed than we already are?

You say sensitivity and empathy are the next steps beyond being intuitive. Why is that?

How can we become more aware of our own energy and other people’s energy?

How can we use sensitivity to navigate through life?

- Can we trust the answers we get through what you call “feeling into” things?
- And how do you “feel into” something?

“The reality of The Intuition Age will be the result of a gradual, but fairly rapid, process of personal and societal transformation. It can put you through the wringer emotionally and energetically, but it will eventually deliver you to an amazing, miraculous destination that you will love.”
